

Care and Maintenance

For Schock sinks

Contents

Overview	3
Cleaning products	4
Do not use	5
Product icons	6
Daily wash	8
How to use Limescale remover on coloured sinks	10
Intensive wash for stains on coloured sinks	12
Removing pot marks	16
Intensive wash for stains on white sinks	18

Daily wash 8

Intensive wash 12

Limescale remover 10

Removing pot marks 16

Cleaning products

EcoGranit® large cleaning kit

Code: 9677 EC

- ✓ 250ml Easy care balsam
- ✓ 250ml Easy care Limescale remover
- ✓ 3 x Eraser sponges

EcoGranit® small cleaning kit

Code: 9727 EC

- ✓ 50ml Easy care balsam
- ✓ 2 x Easy care active tabs
- ✓ 1 x Eraser sponge

EcoGranit® Brightener

Code: 9725 WH

- ✓ 250ml Easy care brightener
- ✓ Use on white EcoGranit® sinks

EcoGranit® cleaning sponges

Code: 9728 WH

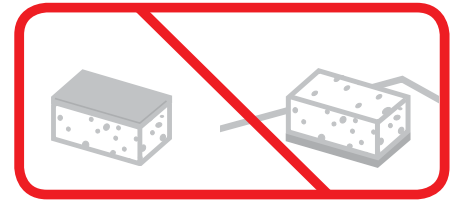

- ✓ 3 Pack eraser sponges

Products available to buy on line - heritagehardware.co.nz

Do not use

- ✗ Abrasive cleaning creams or powders
- ✗ Abrasive cleaning pads
- ✗ Concentrated caustic soda or formic acid
- ✗ Anything highly corrosive
- ✗ Jif
- ✗ Placing hot pots onto the surface from the stove or oven may cause thermal shock, discolouration or damage, so always use a hot mat.

Product icons

Eraser sponge

Easy care Limescale remover

Easy care balsam

Easy care brightener

Dish washing sponge

Ordinary cleaning cloth

Washing-up liquid

Dishwasher powder

Daily wash

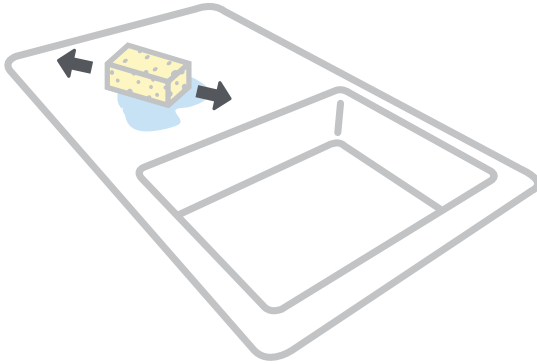

8

1

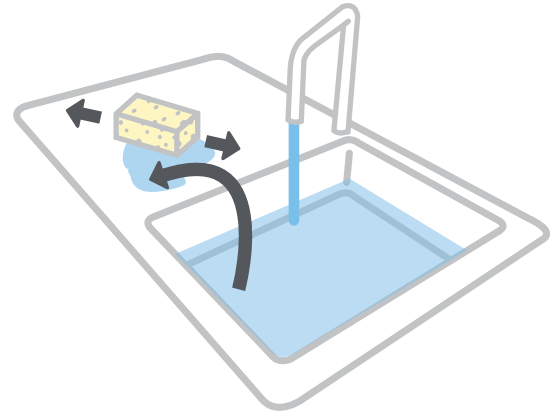

Use washing-up liquid, dish washing sponge or eraser sponge and clean water.

2

Thoroughly wash the sink surface.

3

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

How to use Limescale remover

10

What is Limescale?

If you live in a hard water area then there's every chance you are all too familiar with limescale. What is Limescale?

Limescale is the deposits left behind by hard water.

Limescale is the chalky off-white crust that lurks inside your kettle and boiler and stains your surfaces.

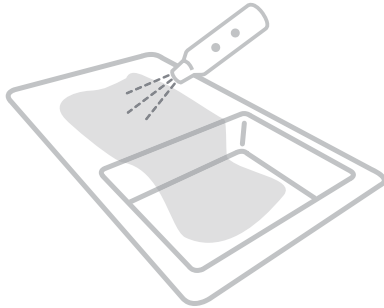

Scientifically speaking limescale is a deposit of calcium carbonate and a residue left behind by hard water.

Hard water is water that contains a higher concentration of dissolved minerals like calcium and magnesium.

When the water evaporates, it leaves behind calcium carbonate deposits.

These limescale deposits therefore build up on any surfaces that hard water is in contact with and can accumulate quickly.

1

Apply easy care Limescale remover.

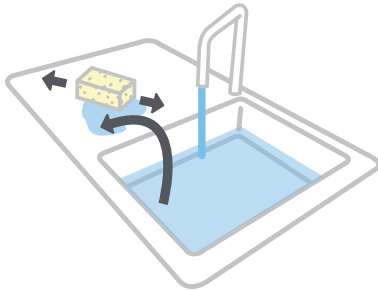

2

00:10:00

Leave for 10 minutes.

3

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

Video - How to use Limescale cleaner on Schöck sinks. archant.co.nz/resources/videos

Intensive wash for stains on coloured sinks

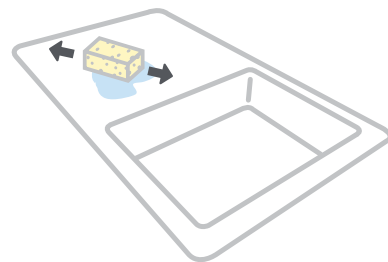

12

1

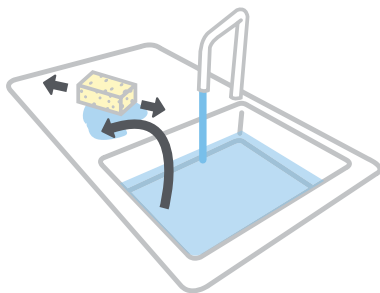

Use washing-up liquid, dish washing sponge or eraser sponge and clean water.

2

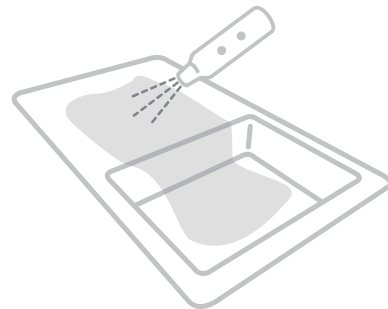

Thoroughly wash the sink surface.

3

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

4

Apply easy care Limescale remover.

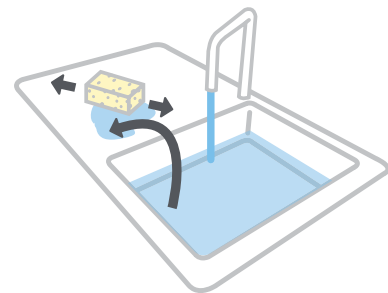

5

00:10:00

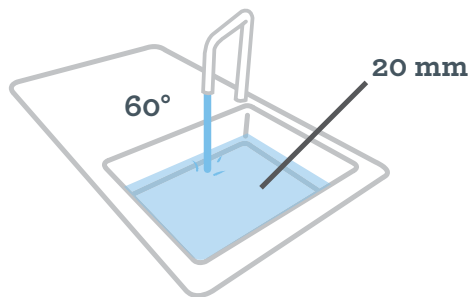

Leave for 10 minutes.

6

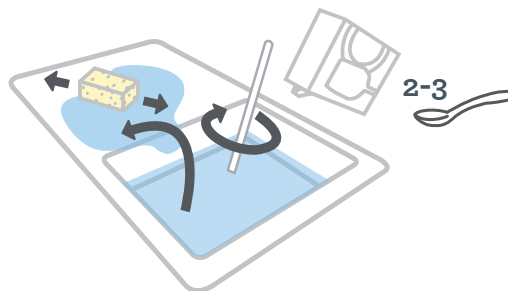

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

7

Insert plug and fill sink with 60° hot water to about 20 mm from bottom of the sink.

8

Stir in 2-3 teaspoons of dish washing powder and thoroughly wash the sink surface.

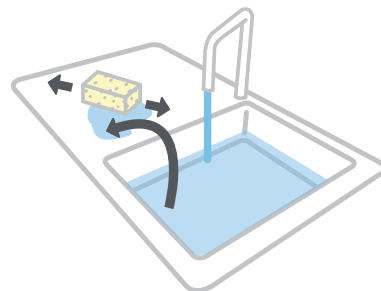

9

01:30:00

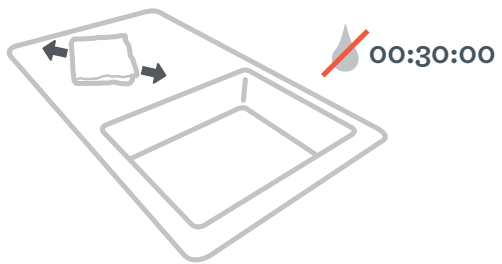

Leave for 1 & half hours.

10

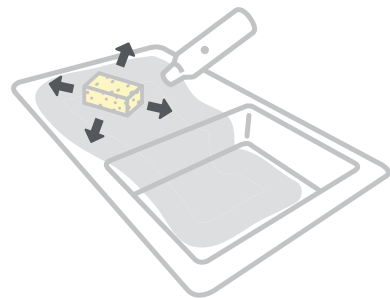

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

11

Completely dry off with an ordinary cleaning cloth and leave for 30 minutes before using the sink again for best results.

12

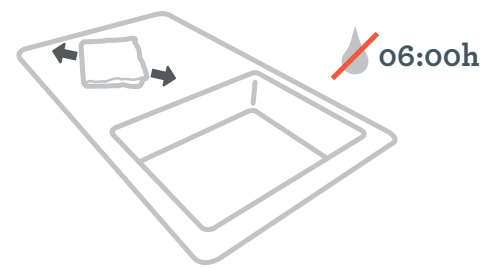

Apply easy care balsam to the sink surface ensuring all areas gets covered.

13

Leave for 1 minute.

14

Completely dry off with an ordinary cleaning cloth and leave for 6 hours before using the sink again for best results.

Removing pot marks

16

1

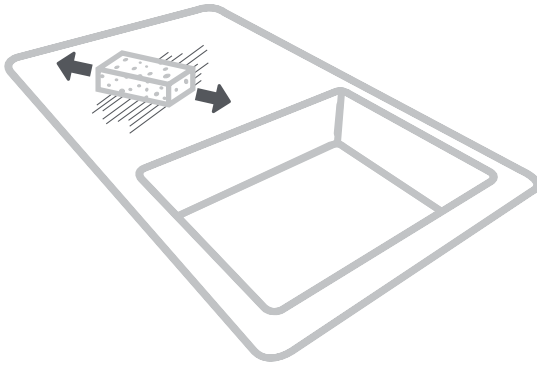

Use eraser sponge and clean water.

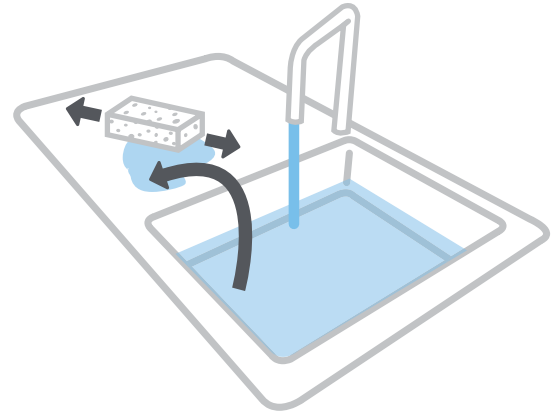

View video online - How to use white sponge on Schock sinks. archant.co.nz/resources/videos

2

Thoroughly wash the sink surface.

3

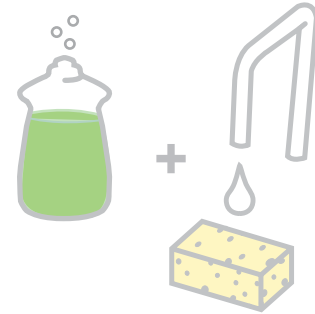

Rinse off with eraser sponge and clean water.

Intensive wash for stains on white sinks

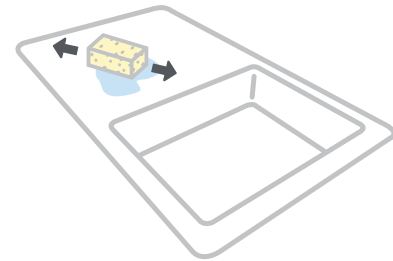

18

1

Use washing-up liquid, dish washing sponge or eraser sponge and clean water.

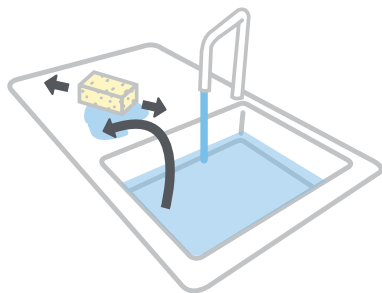

2

Thoroughly wash the sink surface.

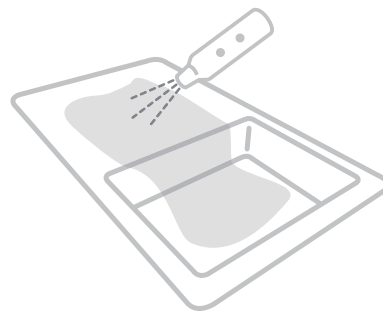

3

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

4

Apply easy care Limescale remover.

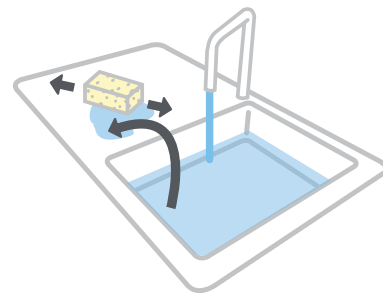

5

00:10:00

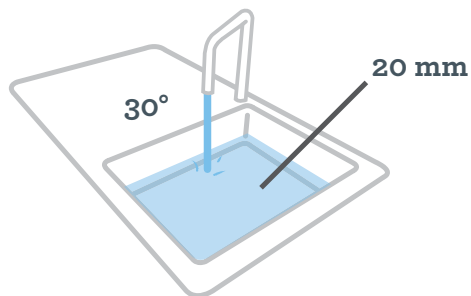

Leave for 10 minutes.

6

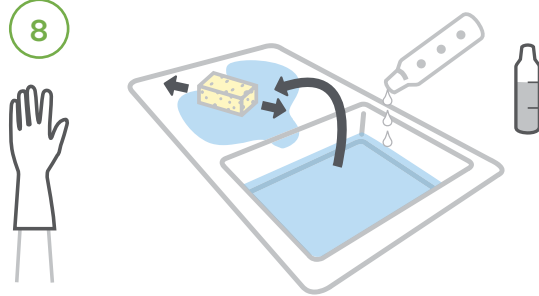

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

7

Insert plug and fill sink with 30° hot water to about 20 mm from bottom of the sink.

8

Wear gloves, Stir in 30ml of easy care brightener and thoroughly wash the sink surface.

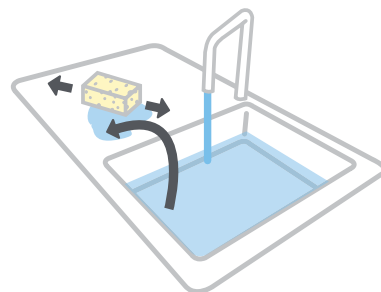

9

00:15:00

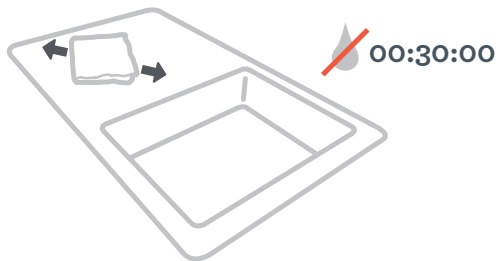

Leave for 15 minutes.

10

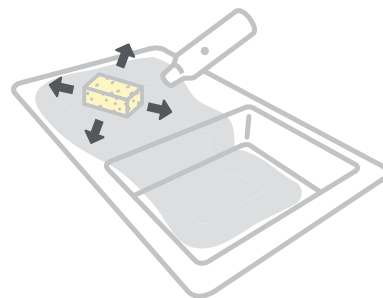

Rinse off with dish washing sponge and clean water.

11

Completely dry off with an ordinary cleaning cloth and leave for 30 minutes before using the sink again for best results.

12

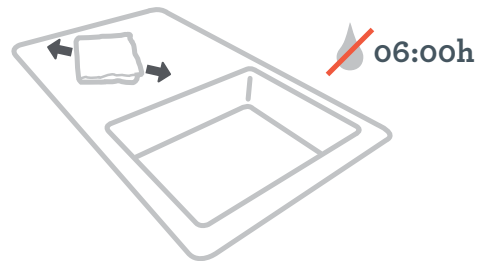

Apply easy care balsam to the sink surface ensuring all areas gets covered.

13

Leave for 1 minute.

14

Completely dry off with an ordinary cleaning cloth and leave for 6 hours before using the sink again for best results.

SCHOCK

HANDMADE IN GERMANY

SCHOCK

HANDMADE IN GERMANY

archant.co.nz

0800 ARCHANT (0800 272 4268)

*All rights reserved E&OE 2019